	9 ECTS Minor Subject	10.5 ECTS "Complementary Lectures": including 1.5 ECTS Gender Studies
	1.5 ECTS Gender Studies
Final Exam	20min presentation	30-40min presentation
	20min defense	Then: defense
	20min exam	In total: max. 90 min
	Board: 1 chairman + 2 examiners	Board: 1 chairman + 3 examiners

Curriculum 2015

- No more „Nebenfach“
- Dissertation Colloquium
- PhD Defense is only about your thesis

Admission: Entrance requirements

Requirements

- „Abschluss eines für ein Dissertationsfach in Frage kommenden technischen/naturwissenschaftlichen Studiums, das von der JKU anerkannt wird“
- „Lehramtstudium in naturwissenschaftlichem Unterrichtsfach“
- FH Diplom- oder Masterstudiengang (nach Maßgabe entsprechender Verordnung)
- In all other cases, it's up to the Vice-Rector for Study Affairs

Deadline for admission: admission is always possible

It is highly recommended to find a supervisor before admission.

Dissertation Subjects

- The main subject area of your dissertation
- Replace the five „subject areas“ from the old Curriculum
- There are several possible dissertation subjects at the JKU:
 - Bioinformatics
 - Biological Chemistry
 - Biophysics
 - Chemistry
 - Computer Science
 - Information Electronics
 - Mathematics
 - Mathematics Education
 - Mechatronics
 - Molecular Biology
 - Nanoscience and -technology
 - Physics
 - Polymer Science
 - Science Education
- You pick your dissertation subject when you enroll, but you can switch afterwards

Dissertation Colloquium

- Present a rough roadmap of your dissertation
 - Goals
 - Methods
 - Financing/Required resources
- A board of professors has to approve your plan in order for you to continue your dissertation
- If you don't have a supervisor yet, you will be assigned to one after passing the colloquium
 - Generally better to have a supervisor beforehand
 - Mainly a way to manage „unrealistic“ PhD plans / PhD candidates without supervisor
- Not compulsory for people who were admitted before WS 2015/16

Doctoral program

Standard period of study: 3 years

- PhD thesis 140.5 ECTS
- Dissertation subject
 - Lectures 9.0 ECTS
 - PhD thesis defense 20.0 ECTS
- Complementary subjects 10.5 ECTS

Lectures (1)

Dissertation subject 9.0 ECTS

Dissertation colloquium + relevant lectures picked/defined by your advisor

• Complementary subjects 10.5 ECTS

- 6 ECTS chosen by advisor with your input
- 3 ECTS chosen freely by you
- 1.5 ECTS Gender Studies

Lectures (2)

Credit transfer of talks & presentations:

possible up to 3 times à 1.5 ECTS

Gender Studies

„Gender Studies Doktorat TNF“
(D. Weichselbaumer):

- 1.5 ECTS
- 4-5 lectures
- Present paper
- No exam

PhD thesis - work

- Work about a scientific topic of your dissertation subject
- Parts of the thesis can be published previously
- Main part of a PhD study

PhD thesis - grading

- 2 referees: 1st: supervisor, 2nd: is elected by the Präses following the suggestion of the supervisor, agreement of the student necessary
- Possible change in the near future: supervisor not allowed to referee your thesis

PhD thesis - deadlines

- Begin of study: submit your dissertation topic
- 5-6 weeks before defense: 1 page abstract for election of second referee
- 4 weeks before defense:
 - > UStat2-Form
 - > Thesis (electronically & 4 times bound)
 - > Doctoral classes form
 - > Print-out registration form from Austrian database of doctorate dissertations
 - > Registration of oral defense
- 10 days before defense: announcement of date of defense

PhD Defense

- Presentation + Defense of your thesis
- Maximal 1.5 hours
- Examination committee: 1 Chairmen + 3 Examiners
 - Your advisor usually part of the committee
 - Have to be part of 3 different organisational units (i.e. JKU institutes)
- Possible change in the near future: supervisor not allowed to referee your thesis

Additional Remarks

(not part of the presentation on Nov. 4, 2015)

„Switching“ the curriculum:

Actually, everybody got switched to the new curriculum (2015W) automatically. However, you still have the possibility to finish your studies according to the examination rules of the old curriculum (curriculum 2009, version from 2013) until April 30, 2017 [or of the very old curriculum (curriculum 2001, version from 2006) until November 30, 2017].

The decision on this issue is taken by you by using the corresponding forms (registration form old/new and lectures form old/new from the JKU website) when you register for your dissertation defense.

Thanks for the remark from the audience clarifying this issue!

Additional Remarks

(not part of the presentation on Nov. 4, 2015)

Finishing your PhD with distinction

Austrian University Law \(UG2002\), §73\(3\) :

„Bei studienabschließenden Prüfungen, die mehr als ein Fach umfassen, ist zusätzlich zu den Beurteilungen für die einzelnen Fächer eine Gesamtbeurteilung zu vergeben. Diese hat „bestanden“ zu lauten, wenn jedes Fach positiv beurteilt wurde, anderenfalls hat sie „nicht bestanden“ zu lauten. Die Gesamtbeurteilung hat „mit Auszeichnung bestanden“ zu lauten, wenn in keinem Fach eine schlechtere Beurteilung als „gut“ und in mindestens der Hälfte der Fächer die Beurteilung „sehr gut“ erteilt wurde. ...“

- You can only get a distinction on your rigorosum
- Rigorosum consists of 2 grades:
 - Dissertation subject (Curriculum2015: 20ECTS for final presentation + defense, 9 ECTS for lectures from dissertation subject)
 - Complementary Lectures (1.5 ECTS Gender Studies + 9 ECTS for lectures)
- One „sehr gut“ and one „gut“ already gives you a distinction (no matter where you have the „sehr gut“)!

Additional information from the JKU Examination and Recognition Services:

If there is a chance that you might finish your PhD sub auspiciis praesidentis rei publicae , please tell them when you hand in your forms (i.e. before your final dissertation defense). Otherwise they will issue you a „regular“ decree and cannot do the sub auspiciis procedure any more!
